MEMORANDUM FOR ADSO

Subject: Invitation to Visit CIC Training Centre

1. On 20 April 1950 Maj. Major, the CIC liaison officer, extended an invitation on behalf of the Commanding General, CIC Training Centre, for CIA to send twelve (12) visitors to a special demonstration at Holabird, Md.

2. The visit is tentatively scheduled for 16 May 1950. The party will arrive at the Centre via Army transportation about 1030. The schedule is generally as follows:

1030 - 1130	Orientation by Brig. Gen. Rice
1130 - 1230	Discussion by each staff section—questions
1230 - 1330	Lunch
1330 - 1530	Visit to classrooms; demonstrations: locks, photography, sound surveillance, Polygraph
1530 - 1645	Return to Washington

3. It is recommended that the Training Division be charged with handling the details of this trip. From the agenda it appears that TRD, OAD, and IAS have primary interest with secondary interest to other elements of GSO, OPC and Commo.

4. BIC will furnish Maj. Major with names of personnel selected to attend and will secure final information concerning time and place of departure.
